Assista (www.grupoassista.com) is a leading Spanish business group for facility services, with a history of over 25 years. It is also a leader in the home assistance, construction and facility maintenance segments, as well as real estate recoveries, services outsourcing and contact centers. Assista owns network of companies and employs more than 2,000 professionals.

This transaction was part of Assista’s growth strategy in Portugal, that is building up a service network through acquisitions. They have acquired Desentop, the market leader in the plumbing and drain cleaning sector, in July 2016.
